

Guerrillas Hit Again in Middle East

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Palestinian guerrillas and Jordanian security men battled in downtown Amman today, with one guerrilla reported killed and three civilians wounded. Lebanese demonstrated against guerrillas in the Biblical city of Sidon and in Beirut.

The Middle East peace talks at U.N. headquarters in New York were in suspension after an opening round Tuesday that brought no indication of any movement toward a compromise.

The cause of the Amman street battle was not learned immediately. But eyewitnesses said a group of guerrillas on one side of the street and "special branch" security men behind a parked car on the other blazed away at each other with pistols and submachine guns. Joint army-guerrilla patrols raced to the scene, stopped the fighting and made several arrests.

It was the eighth such incident reported since the guerrillas vowed to sabotage the cease-fire agreement in which Jordan's King Hussein joined Egypt and Israel on Aug. 7.

The demonstration in Sidon took the form of a general strike in the wake of street battles Monday between guerrillas and pro-Nasser followers of Maarouf Saad, the city's representative in Parliament. Two persons were killed, more than a dozen wounded and Saad was kidnapped for a time by the guerrillas.

Saad's followers called the strike because one of his relatives was still being held by the guerrillas, who were entrenched behind sandbags on roofs and at street intersections.

The demonstrators in Beirut were from the South Lebanese village of Chebaa. Blaming the guerrillas for Israeli strikes against their village, they

Purcell Vote Disappoints Carruth

LEXA, Ark. (AP) — Walter Carruth of Lexa, the American party nominee who will face Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller and the Democratic party nominee in the November gubernatorial general election, said today Tuesday's primaries went "about like we had anticipated."

Carruth said, however, "anyone would be less than truthful if he didn't say he was disappointed in Mr. (Joe) Purcell's showing."

Carruth said he thought Purcell would finish in the runner-up spot to Orval E. Faubus, who led the Democratic ticket. Carruth said he had no explanation for Purcell's showing because "I thought Mr. Purcell had the same type of general support as Mr. Faubus."

Carruth said one significant development in Tuesday's vote was that "a lot of folks stayed home."

He said these consider themselves "American party people" and "they were really not concerned as to who received the nomination for the various parties."

Carruth said he "felt certain" there were 50,000 to 60,000 who stayed home within the areas that George Wallace carried in the 1968 presidential election.

sealed off the main street outside the office of the Palestine Liberation Organization with barricades of burning tires and demanded that the guerrillas protect them or move out of their village.

Lettuce Wilts as Strike Continues

SALINAS, Calif. (AP) — Lettuce spoiled in the fields and supermarket produce prices climbed today in the third day of a strike by thousands of laborers in the Salinas and Santa Maria valleys, the nation's salad bowl.

Lettuce, normally requiring daily harvesting, will have to be plowed under if the strike continues another few days, a growers' spokesman said.

Wholesale lettuce prices at the Golden Gate Produce Terminal in San Francisco have nearly doubled—to $5-$6 for a carton of 18-24 heads.

With no negotiations in prospect, both sides are girding for a prolonged fight. The issue is a demand by the AFL-CIO United Farm Workers Organizing Committee that it be given contracts for the steep laborers who harvest crops in the valleys.

An estimated 10,000 workers are involved, but the long-range stake, the growers say, is some 55,000 California farm workers employed by more than 200 growers.

A minority of the field hands recently were covered by Teamster union contracts with growers, and the UFWOC wants to represent these workers as well as the organized majority. The Teamsters have agreed to let UFWOC represent field workers, but growers are balking.

The Teamsters and UFWOC contracts differ little, both offering an average pay of $1.80 an hour, plus piece rate incentives and other benefits.

Cesar Chavez, UFWOC chief, says the pay now is $1.25 to $1.45 an hour, not counting piece rate incentives, but a growers association claims it is $1.75.

Pickets carrying the red and black Huega—strike—banners of the UFWOC ignored court restraining orders Tuesday.

If a Man Feels Good He Wonders Just What Is Wrong With Him

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — A man is usually as mentally healthy as he thinks himself to be.

But the world is so mixed up today that if a fellow feels good he wonders what is wrong with him.

Is he on the beam or off his rocker? Maybe his best friend won't tell him and even his hairdresser doesn't know for sure.

Whom can he turn to for help? Here is a handy little do-it-yourself test that should show you what state your mind is in. Simply ask yourself the following questions:

Do you have five friends whose loyalty to you is unquestionable, who would defend you under any circumstances, and who would be truly glad if you unexpectedly made a million dollars?

Every now and then when you look into the mirror don't you get a wild hope that your hair is coming in a little thicker on top?

Does your wife understand you—perhaps only too well? Is it not true that you sometimes suspect your doctor keeps his best medicines for himself and some of his pet patients?

Even though you know nutty people often have the delusion they are being followed, haven't you more than once had an uneasy conviction that you were being followed yourself?

If you just had more time, you'd learn a foreign language or do something else to improve your cultural level, wouldn't you?

Suppose you were in a wagon train under attack, and someone had to try to ride through the encircling Indians to get help from the U.S. cavalry. You'd volunteer for that mission—right?

Can you write down by memory your social security number, your car license number, your blood type, the number of people you have borrowed $5 or more from in the last year, and the manner in which the 50 stars in the American flag are arranged?

When the boss tells a funny story to the gang around the office water cooler, you laugh along with the others even though you don't catch the punchline, do you not?

Those are the questions. Now to the score.

If you answered either yes or no to all the questions, you are a mentally unbalanced hypocrite—a menace to yourself and to

Extension of Draft Almost Guaranteed

By LAWRENCE L. KNUTSON
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Defeat of a plan to maintain an all-volunteer army virtually guarantees extension of the draft, but the resulting pressure could quicken U.S. withdrawal from Vietnam, senators say.

Chairman John Stennis, D-Miss., of the Armed Services Committee, who opposed the all-volunteer plan, said the defeat "will make it simpler to get the draft extended."

"The draft didn't get us into Vietnam, but it may get us out," commented Sen. Jacob Javits, R-N.Y., who opposes the war but also fought the volunteer plan.

The Senate defeated 52-35 Tuesday the plan to raise soldiers' pay to a level that would make military life more attractive and possibly eliminate the need of the draft.

"I feel the Senate took a very long step today toward committing the country toward the extension of the draft," said Sen. Mark O. Hatfield, R-Ore., who co-sponsored the amendment with Sen. Barry M. Goldwater, R-Ariz.

"We face a June 30, 1971, Selective Service expiration date and if we do not have by that time some alternative plan, it's very obvious the administration and the Congress will be forced into the role of extending the draft for another two years," Hatfield said.

Javits and Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., who oppose the war and have spoken out against what they consider inequities in the draft system, voted against the amendment.

"It is unwise to insulate from the horrors of war middle- and upper-class Americans who might lead the protest against senseless foreign adventures," Kennedy said. He contended it is unfair to allow the burdens of military service to fall only on the poor who might be induced to join the army because of a pay raise.

"I frankly might question, for example," Kennedy said, "whether the current pressures for de-escalation of the Indo-China war would be as great if young men from every social background were not threatened with service in that war," Kennedy said.

Says Am. Party Might Withdraw

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP) — John Norman Warnock of Camden said here Tuesday that if Orval E. Faubus wins the Democratic nomination for governor, the American Party in Arkansas candidate for governor may withdraw.

Warnock, who will face Ray Thornton Jr. of Sheridan in the general election race for attorney general as the APA's nominee, said, "Faubus did a lot for (George) Wallace in 1968, so we might have to see whether Walter Carruth would want to continue in the race."

Carruth, a farmer from Lexa, is the APA's nominee for governor.

Women Having 'Strike for Equality'

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

In the streets, at work and on the homefront, women liberationists today are demanding equal rights with a nationwide "Strike for Equality," timed to coincide with the 50th anniversary of adoption of the 19th amendment, which gave women the right to vote.

The National Women's Strike Coalition, sponsor of the demonstration, has urged women to stay away from work if possible, stop performing menial household chores, boycott certain allegedly degrading products and take children to husbands' offices to demonstrate the need for child-care centers.

Rallies were scheduled in most major cities, including New York, Washington, San Francisco, Detroit and Boston. Some local feminist groups have urged members to dump bras and cosmetics in trash cans, symbolizing opposition to women being forced to look sexy.

President Nixon, noting the suffrage anniversary, issued a proclamation Tuesday asking Americans "to recognize the great debt we owe to those who dedicated their life's work to the cause of women's suffrage."

He added, "Let us all recognize that women surely have a still wider role to play in the political, economic and social life of our country."

Several politicians endorsed the women's cause. Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller proclaimed today "Women's Rights Day" in New York State. Mayors James Tate of Philadelphia and Peter Flaherty of Pittsburgh took similar action in their cities.

Sen. Charles E. Goodell, R-N.Y., held a news conference with Betty Friedan, a leader of the National Organization of Women—NOW—and other feminists and announced plans to introduce new federal legislation for women's rights.

Rep. Martha Griffiths, D-Mich., one of 11 women members of Congress, complained that the nation's newspaper editors "are treating this thing as a joke."

"If it's not an absolutely fabulous success," she said, "then they will say that women don't want rights ... they're happy where they are."

In Washington, the Secret Service announced Tuesday that for the first time it had hired women as police officers to be part of the new Executive Protective Service, responsible for protecting the President and his immediate family when they are in residence in the White House.

The strike coalition, at a news conference in New York Tuesday, urged women to boycott Silva Thins cigarettes, Ivory Liquid detergent, Prestine feminine deodorant and Cosmopolitan magazine.

The women accused the cigarette of portraying women as "objects of contempt" in their advertising; said of the detergent, "We feel older women have something to offer to society besides soft hands and clean glasses;" and claimed the magazine was "geared to selling women as sexual objects."

The New York women also were angry with city officials who said feminists would be limited to one lane of Fifth Avenue in their early evening march to a Bryant Park rally. Mrs. Friedan said suffragettes had the whole avenue

Engagement Announced

MISS SHARON HUNEYCUTT

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert J. Huneycutt announce the engagement and approaching when they marched to celebrate and "we can have it again. This is our hour of history and we are going to take it."

She said, "I am not threatening violence, merely expressing determination."

One woman who disagreed with the feminists was Sausan Young, 22, of Lethbridge, Alta., Canada. Participating in a beauty contest in Montana, she was asked about women's liberation.

"Any girl with a head on her shoulders can get anything she wants out of a man. Honey, I've got better things to do than change tires."

She won the contest. Agatha is a Greek name which means "good; kind."

marriage of their daughter, Sharon Kay, to Truman Dwayne Arrington, son of Mr. and Mrs. Truman Arrington, all of Hope. Miss Huneycutt, a graduate of Fayetteville High School, is a senior at Ouachita Baptist University majoring in psychology and English. She is a member of the E.E.E. A September 25 wedding in Berry Chapel on the campus of Ouachita Baptist University is planned.

New Women's Title Is Ms. (Mizz)

By EDIE LEDERER

Associated Press Writer SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — In women's liberation language, if you're a female you're a Ms. —not a Miss or a Mrs.

That's pronounced Mizz and as Jean Crosby explains: "It's like what children call their teachers, they don't know the difference."

Jean, coordinator of today's women's liberation rally in Union Square, refuses to say whether she is a Miss or Mrs.

"In our society, women are very often defined in relation to a man rather than an autonomous human beings," she said. "To me that's very offensive, to have people not see me as me—and to know who I'm living with or married to."

"I don't think we ask the same thing of men," Jean said. "If we must use some form of address, let's do the same thing as men do. Mr. doesn't mean one or the other. Ms. doesn't either."

Jean said the use of Ms. is "something that's just being tested out." But she added: "I've seen quite a bit of it in the Bay area."

To Jean, Ms. is just part of a larger problem—the male domination of the English language. "So much of our language is so male-oriented, we're going to have to come up with new words."

For example, Jean said, "every word that refers to males and females together is always male ... like mankind."

"In the Constitution, it says 'all men are created equal,'" she said. "And we had to pass an amendment because we clearly weren't covered under that."

The marriage ceremony says, "I now pronounce you man and wife." Why not husband and wife? asks Jean.

"I don't think it makes a whole lot of sense to pronounce somebody man and woman when they're already born that way," she said.

For Jean herself, Mizz hasn't yet become everyday speech. "I prefer to call people by their first names and I don't use it except when I write letters."

POLICEMAN'S WIFE SPEAKS OUT

Dear Helen:

Thank you for telling a reader that the actions of one bad cop aren't representative of all. Here is a little something I hope you will print, in answer to her:

WHAT IS A COP?

Most of the time, perhaps, he's just a fellow in a uniform who waves you through a busy intersection. Then suddenly one day he is also the man whose fast, skilled hands on an inhalator bring your baby boy back to life.

He's the fellow who gave you a parking ticket that day you didn't see the sign. But he's also the one who pulled your parents out of their burning, smashed car.

He's the man who spoke tough the time you went through the stoplight. But he's also the genial, friendly guardian the kids joke with at the school crossing.

He's the good Samaritan who knows first-hand of the hardships in your town, and who digs down into his own thin wallet for the price of a hot meal for the youngsters left without food.

He's the bearer of sad tidings when tragedy comes; the untangler of traffic in blizzards, the Solomon who settles squabbles between neighbors.

He's the head of a family, who walked into a darkened warehouse the other night and dutifully let the men back in the shadows fire the first shot.

It's comforting to know, as we sit in our easy chairs on a stormy evening, that over 200,000 Americans like him have been willing to pin on a badge and agree to make our troubles their careers. —A COP'S WIFE

Dear Helen:

We are glad to see our daughter dating a nice likable boy, as she has been rather introverted and didn't seem to have as many good times as she might.

However, without making this boy feel unwelcome, how can we tactfully get him to leave when his afternoon visits stretch past our dinner hour?

Is it unreasonable to suggest that our daughter tell him it's time for her to help with dinner? He seems to have no deadline. — INEXPERIENCED

Dear Helen:

A boy usually gets the message when the girl's mother calls her in for dinner, especially if she adds, "Johnny, can you join us?" (And if he takes the invitation rather than the hint — well, nice try anyway. Maybe he'll invite HER out for hamburgers tomorrow.) — H.

Several weeks ago I wrote to your column about the importance of young and old learning to float on their backs before they even learn to swim, and to be especially sure they're adept at floating before they attempt any long-distance swimming. I didn't see my letter printed, so I'll try again.

Too many people misjudge distances in lakes or rivers. They tire, then they become frantic. Thus drownings occur in tragic numbers.

LINDSEY COFIELD

Lindsey Cofield will be preaching Sunday morning at Garrett Memorial Church. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Cofield who have just moved here from Dallas, Tex. Lindsey is a student at Steven F. Austin University at Nacogdoches, Tex.

Swimming is the best and most enjoyable sport of all, but so many panic in unknown situations because they don't realize how long they can float. — OLD SWIMMER

Dear O.S.: As one old swimmer to another — you're right. More swimming rules; always practice the buddy system, and if you're trying for distance, have a boat or life belt handy. — H.

Trojans May Be Among Leaders Again

By JACK STEVENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer
LOS ANGELES (AP) — "Our team this year will be somewhat like last year," said Coach John McKay of the Southern California Trojans, "except this time our experience is on offense instead of defense."
The Trojans finished third nationally a year ago in The Associated Press football poll and appear destined to land among the leaders again.

In the 56-year history of the Rose Bowl, USC last year became the first to play for the fourth consecutive time.
When the Trojans beat favored Michigan 10-3, they also became the second USC club in the McKay era to conclude an undefeated season—10-0-1.

'Great Thief' Turned Loose by Cowboys

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer
The "great thief" has been turned loose, and he doesn't like it one bit.

The nickname goes with Dave Whitsett, a free safety for the past 13 years in the National Football League, who had more career interceptions, 46, than any other active player.
However, Whitsett turned 34 years old in July after New Orleans traded him to Dallas in the spring and the Cowboys apparently decided Tuesday to go with some of the younger fellows. Whitsett was released on waivers, and immediately blasted 'Cowboys' coach Tom Landry.

"I didn't feel there was any question I would be the free safety," he said, after the job apparently was put up for grabs between second year man Richmond Flowers and rookie Cliff Harris.

"Landry is an unemotional man, but this is a very emotional game. He tries to make a mechanical robot type of ball club, figuring that if he coaches you to be in a certain position you'll do the job. It just doesn't work that way."

Emotions aside, Whitesell is now without a job in football for the first time since he was drafted by Detroit in 1958 and wound up with the Chicago Bears in 1961, where he starred for their NFL champions in 1963.

While Whitesell doesn't know if he'll be picked up again for stealing, several other veterans hooked on with new clubs.

In a straight player deal, the St. Louis Cardinals sent guard John Wilbur, 27, to Los Angeles for guard Mike Lahood, 25.
Wilbur, who had started for Dallas in 1968 and 1969, was traded to St. Louis in the off-season, but didn't report. However, he wasted little time reporting to the Rams from his Los Angeles home.

Lahood was a starter the last half of 1969 for the Rams when Joe Scibelli was hurt, but Scibelli is healthy again.

The New York Jets picked up running back Frank Quayle, who was cut recently by Denver.

The New York Giants left a number of veterans wondering where they'll next be playing as they cut offensive tackle Steve Wright, tight end Butch Wilson and quarterback Bob Davis, who had been acquired last winter from Houston.

Angels Now Threat to Twins

By TOM SALADINO
Associated Press Sports Writer
A bomb scare failed to materialize in Minnesota but nearly 700 miles east the California Angels set off an explosion of their own, posing a definite threat to the Twins.

The bomb threat occurred in the fourth inning of the Twins-Boston Red Sox game Tuesday night and Metropolitan Stadium was evacuated by the 17,697 fans for 44 minutes before play was resumed.

Tony Conigliaro slammed a homer in the eighth inning and the Red Sox held off the Twins for a 1-0 triumph while in Detroit—693 miles east—the California Angels blasted the Tigers in a doubleheader, 6-4 in 12 innings and 10-6.

The double victories by the Angels placed them a dangerously close 3½ games behind American League West Division leading Minnesota.

In other AL action, Dave McNally won his 20th game of the season—the first major league to make it—and the Baltimore Orioles trimmed Oakland 5-1, Chicago edged Washington 4-3, the New York Yankees nipped Kansas City 2-1 and Milwaukee nudged Cleveland 4-2 in 10 innings.

In the National League, Atlanta edged New York 7-6, Philadelphia trimmed Cincinnati 2-1 in 12 innings, Houston drilled Montreal 6-3 in 13 innings, Los Angeles downed Chicago 4-1, San Diego outducced Pittsburgh 4-3 and San Francisco dropped St. Louis 4-2.

Police informed the Twins at 10:30 p.m., EDT, of the telephone threat and it was announced over the public address system that the male caller said the bomb would go off at 10:30 p.m.

The evacuation was orderly and without panic with some 2,000 fans, players, police and vendors gathered in the center-field area. The rest of the people milled in the parking lot.

After a 27-minute wait the fans were allowed to return to the stands and the game was resumed at 10:57 p.m.

Bill Zepp went seven innings for Minnesota, giving up only four hits before Tom Hall came on in the eighth and surrendered Conigliaro's 25th homer, a 360-foot shot into the left field seats. The Twins have lost three in a row and 13 of 17.

Jay Johnstone capped California's second-game explosion with a grand slam homer in the Angels big six-run ninth inning, overcoming a 6-4 Tigers' lead. Jim Fregosi's two-run single earlier in the inning had tied it.

Alex Johnson had a two-run homer and Roger Repoz a solo blast for the Angels while pinch-hitter Kevin Collins rocked a three-run belt for the Tigers.

The Angels fell behind 4-0 in the opener but eventually won it in the 12th on Fregosi's sacrifice fly and a run-scoring double by Johnson. Billy Cowan's two-run double in the seventh started California's comeback after solo homers by Dalton Jones and Norm Cash had given the Tigers their edge.

McNally, reaching the 20-victory mark for the third year in succession, got taking his eighth straight, after all the support he needed when the Orioles scored four times in the third inning.

The left-hander, who has lost seven, said afterward: "It feels real good. I was struggling not too long ago."

It was also McNally's 110th victory as an Oriole, tying Milt Pappas' club mark for most triumphs. Campy Campaneris had four hits off the crafty veteran who claims "control has been the biggest factor lately."

Rich Morales stroked a bases-loaded sacrifice fly in the ninth inning for the White Sox' victory over Washington.

Rookie Jim Lytle dropped a run-scoring single into center with two out in the ninth inning, enabling the Yanks to edge the Royals for the 10th time in 11 outings this season. Bob Oliver clouted his 26th homer for Kansas City.

Bernie Smith's first major league homer—a two-run shot in the 10th inning—gave the Brewers their triumph over the Indians, snapping Milwaukee's six-game losing streak. Mike Hegan also rapped a two-run shot for the Brewers while Roy Foster had a solo round-tripper for Cleveland.

PITCHING—Dave McNally, Orioles, became the majors' first 20-game winner by scattering 10 hits to tame Oakland 5-1 for his eighth straight triumph.

BATTING—Dave Campbell, Padres, stroked a homer and two singles, driving in three runs, including the ninth-inning tie-breaker, for a 4-2 victory over Pittsburgh.

San Juan 3-2 Over Okla. City
CHESAPEAKE, Va. (AP) — San Juan, P.R., the first team from outside the continental United States to play in the Bronco World Series, defeated Oklahoma City 3-2 for the championship Tuesday night.

Clemente Victim of 'Fowl' Play

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer
Roberto Clemente was a victim of fowl play, but the Pittsburgh Pirates were fair game for San Diego's Dave Campbell.

Campbell drove in three runs, including a ninth-inning winner, as the Padres plucked the Pirates' feathers 4-3 Tuesday night in a game marked by Clemente's encounter with a runaway chicken.

The Pirates' superstar, making his first visit to San Diego since revealing a 1969 brush with would-be kidnappers in the California city, was given the bird as he took his right field position in the first inning.

A fan dropped the chicken onto the field—in a symbolic gesture—and it strutted past Clemente before being collared by a pursuing ballboy.

Clemente had claimed he was returning to his hotel with a bag of fried chicken in tow after a game against the Padres 15 months ago when he was abducted by gunmen, who threatened his life but eventually released him unharmed—and even returned his midnight snack.

Despite the loss, the Pirates retained their three-game lead in the National League East as second-place New York bowed to Atlanta 7-6 and third-place Chicago lost to Los Angeles 4-1. Philadelphia nipped Cincinnati 3-2 in 12 innings; Houston topped Montreal 6-3 in 13, and San Francisco trimmed St. Louis 4-2 in other NL games.

In the American League, Baltimore downed Oakland 5-1; Boston edged Minnesota 1-0;

California swept a doubleheader from Detroit 6-4 in 12 innings and 10-6; Milwaukee beat Cleveland 4-2 in 10 innings; the New York Yankees took Kansas City 2-1 and the Chicago White Sox defeated Washington 4-3.

After making Clemente the butt of their chicken joke, the Padres made up a 3-1 deficit before beating the Pirates on Campbell's bases-loaded single in the ninth. Campbell also hit his 10th homer in the first inning and singled home a run in the seventh before Ollie Brown tied the game in the eighth with his 22nd homer.

Hal King's three-run homer capped a five-run Atlanta salvo in the fifth inning and the Braves withstood Donn Clendenon's late RBI spree to beat the Mets. Clendenon smacked a three-run homer in the eighth and a two-run single in the ninth.

Von Joshua broke a fourth inning tie with a run-scoring single—his first RBI in a month—and Bill Russell laced a two-run triple in the seventh as the Dodgers floored the Cubs behind Joe Moeller and reliever Jim Brewer.

Tony Taylor's run-producing single in the 12th carried the Phils past the Reds, who blew an early 2-0 lead. Ron Stone's pinch-single knocked in the tying run in the eighth and winning reliever Dick Selma checked Cincinnati over the final three innings.

The Astros snapped a 3-3 tie on Larry Howard's 13th inning single and added two insurance runs on a single by Doug Rader. Rusty Staub's two-run triple keyed a tying seventh-inning rally by the Expos.

The Giants capitalized on Steve Carlton's wildness and handed the Cardinals' southpaw his 18th loss, turning three walks and a wild pickoff attempt into three runs.

Intrepid Has Narrow Lead in Boat Race

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP) — Intrepid skipper Bill Ficker alertly spotted a door barely ajar, slipped through and then slammed it shut on Valiant, and thus takes a narrow one race lead into today's next test in the grueling America's Cup trial races.

Intrepid takes a 5-1 record into the resumption of its head-to-head clash against Valiant, 4-2. The boats are expected to continue racing daily against each other until one is picked by the New York Yacht Club's Race Committee to defend the cup the United States has not lost in more than 100 years.

The challenger will be either Gretel II of Australia or France, the French 12-meter yacht, which resume their best-of-seven series today for the right to challenge for the cup Sept. 13. Gretel II leads their competition 2-0.

Intrepid raised her record against Valiant to 2-1 with a tricky starting maneuver Tuesday that sailed her into a lead she never relinquished.

"I thought I had the door closed, but it opened up a bit too soon," said Valiant skipper Bob McCullough, explaining the crucial maneuvering at the start. "I thought he (Ficker) was going to go around."

"I bore off to gain speed and thought when I did that I'd absolutely close the door on him." But McCullough left a small gap between his boat and the committee boat, and Ficker daringly sailed Intrepid through and into the lead at the start.

Nicklaus, Casper Battle for Lead

By BOB GREEN

Associated Press Golf Writer
UPPER MONTCLAIR, N.J. (AP) — Jack Nicklaus and Billy Casper are casting a special eye on pro golf's richest prize, the $300,000 inaugural Dow Jones classic which goes up for grabs Thursday with its $60,000 first prize.

Either Nicklaus or Casper, battling for the lead in money winnings, could move into the shadow of $200,000 in earnings this year with a victory here.

And any of the others among the top 10 money winners could grab the top spot with a victory. Nicklaus, who gave up the lead to Casper when he sat out last week's Avco Classic while Casper collected the $32,000 first prize, has pocketed $134,660 this year to Casper's $139,585.

Nicklaus, who many feel is just reaching his peak, is the likely favorite, as usual, in the bulky field of 150 of the world's greatest shot-makers. He is aiming for his third victory in 18 tournaments this season.

However, as imposing as he is, he can only be ranked a mild pick in the 72-hole chase over the rolling, 7,058-yard, par-72 Upper Montclair Country Club course.

Arrayed against him are all the great names of golf including Arnold Palmer, Gary Player, Lee Trevino, Frank Beard and Casper.

Casper, the Masters champion, never attracts the crowds or the publicity as do some of the others, but no one has won more tournaments this year than the former fat man with the exotic diet. He has taken top prize in four of the 17 tournaments he has entered.

Palmer, who also sat out the Avco after finishing second to Dave Stockton in the PGA championship, will take earnings of $112,669—No. 7 on the list into this test which ends Sunday.

Player, Trevino and Beard also are over the $100,000 mark this season, along with Bruce Crampton, Dick Lotz, Dave Hill and Bruce Devlin, all of whom are entered.

There is also Tony Jacklin, U.S. Open champion, and Stockton, the new PGA king.

Caveness Leaving Pro Football

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Ronnie Caveness, a former Arkansas Razorback star, said Tuesday that he was retiring from professional football.

Caveness, who was injured in the first exhibition game with the Boston Patriots last fall, said his knee has not responded properly following an operation.

The knee "just really hasn't come around as it should," he said. "I can run full speed straight ahead, but I haven't tried any strenuous lateral movements."

Caveness said he might return to pro ball next season if

Giants Hope for Comeback With Files

By MIKE RATHET

Associated Press Sports Writer
BROOKVILLE, N.Y. (AP) — His name is Jim Files, but every day it sounds more like Sam Huff.

Since the retirement of Huff, who taught the Violent World of Linebacking to the American sports fan through television, the New York Giants have used a cast of middle linebackers that includes Lou Slaby, Jerry Hillbrand, Mike Ciccollella, Jeff Smith, Vince Costello, Henry Davis and Ralph Heck.

Not one fit the mold. Files breaks it.

At 6-foot-4, 240 pounds, the No. 1 draft choice from Oklahoma has the size and the ability to get the job done in the Huff manner.

There is no doubt about it, according to defensive Coach Norb Hecker, who watched Tommy Nobis blossom at Atlanta.

"You just feel it with certain guys," Hecker explained. "This kid already is much better at pass defense than Nobis. He has great range and a natural knack of getting back and reading patterns. He'll have to learn to meet the running game like Nobis does, but he will."

The Giants hope to bring back the days of their feared defensive unit through Files and other additions such as Wes Grant, John Baker, Jim Kanicki and Jerly Shay in an attempt to improve a club that finished 6-8 last year.

The main weakness during 1969 was defense and the additions should help, particularly at linebacker, where Files figures to anchor the middle, and up front, where the others are battling for spots.

Grant is a high draft pick from UCLA battling Baker, down from Canada, and holdover Bob Lurtsema for a defensive his knee improves.

He has accepted a position with a Little Rock firm that handles municipal bonds.

end spot. Kanicki, acquired from Cleveland, and Shay, acquired from Atlanta, are penciled in at tackle.

Offensively, the Giants may have a more consistent strike force with quarterback Fran Tarkenton set to steer a crew that will run out of Coach Alex Webster's multiple offense system the entire season.

Webster began installing the 1 formation the last four games of the 1969 season and states frankly:

"We'll use more formations than the Kansas City Chiefs."

Tarkenton's aerial tactics likely will be Clifton McNeil, acquired from San Francisco after leading the league in receptions two years ago. He'll be at one wide receiving berth, trying to make people forget traded Homer Jones, while sophomores Dick Houston and Don Herrmann battle for the other job.

The running back posts are up for grabs among Ron Johnson, acquired from Cleveland along with Kanicki in the Jones' deal, Joe Morrison, Tucker Frederickson, Junior Coffey, Ernie Koy and Bobby Duhan.

However, the key to any title hopes in the new Eastern Division of the realigned National Conference rests with the bolstering of the defense. Only Dallas seems out of reach in a division that also includes Washington, St. Louis and Philadelphia.

But Webster cautions against over optimism. "We've got a long way to go," he says. "We're still rebuilding."

Both statements are accurate.

Fayetteville Defeated in Tournament

WICHITA, Kan. (AP)—Grand Rapids, Mich., eliminated Fayetteville, Ark., from the National Baseball Congress tournament Tuesday, defeating the Arkansas 10-1.

Gordon Reck and Robert Thole combined for a four-hitter for the winners. The game ended at seven innings because of a tournament rule that games be terminated if a team is leading by six runs or more at that point.

Hearnes Boys Doing Well in Golf

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — Defending champion David Hearnes of Little Rock and his brother, John, won two matches each Tuesday in the State Junior Match Play golf tournament at Hot Springs Country Club.

David Hearnes defeated Jim Hall of Little Rock 3 and 2 and smashed Louis Ross of Little Rock 6 and 4. John Hearnes crushed Dave Harris of Hot Springs 7 and 6 and defeated Brad Gessler of Hot Springs 4 and 3.

Two more rounds are scheduled today with the two survivors meeting Thursday for the championship.

Quarterbacks Stand Out in Training

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Quarterbacks were in the limelight around the Southwest Conference football training camps Tuesday.

SMU's Chuck Hixson directed the Pioneers in an impressive offensive display in the third part of a three-segment scrimmage at Dallas.

Coach Hayden Fry said he was pleased with the offensive unit's effort in completing 9 of 14 passes for 140 yards. The offense also got 109 yards in 12 rushing plays in the drive.

Other offensive performers catching Fry's eye included tailbacks Gordon Gilder and Gary Hammond and linemen Harry Hargrave and Bill Jackson.

On defense, Fry noticed end John Jordan, linebackers Sherwood Blount and Joe Stutts, and halfback Pat Curry.

Fry slated another scrimmage today.

At the University of Texas, quarterback Eddie Phillips still is getting the feel of his inherited starting position but head coach Darrell Royal thinks it'll eventually fit just fine.

"Anyone who steps into quarterback after a championship has big shoes to fill," Royal said. "I think Eddie Phillips has the tools to do it and I think Gary Keithley does too. We've been there before, in replacing championship quarterbacks."

Royal said the only thing Phillips doesn't know how to do is direct a winning team. "He has

University Games Begin in Turin

TURIN, Italy (AP) — The sixth World University Games get under way here today with the American team seeking another near-sweep in the 22 swimming events.

The Americans won 21 swimming gold medals in the 1967 University Games in Tokyo when they missed only in the women's 100-meter breaststroke.

"I believe our team is stronger than the one we had in 1967," said George Breen, coach of the girls' team. "But competition has also grown and I don't know whether we will be able to win another eight golds with the girls."

Dan Easterling, the American men's swimming squad, also was very pleased with his squad.

Easterling said he was confident the Americans would do well, but he did not want to make predictions.

his job cut out for him," Royal said.

The Arkansas Razorbacks worked out twice Tuesday without pads but it was rough on the Hog quarterbacks.

Sophomore quarterback Walter Nelson suffered a fractured finger while taking a snap from center. He is expected to miss practice until Monday.

Former schoolboy phenom Joe Ferguson, a sophomore-to-be, returned to practice Tuesday but still was hampered by a sore back.

Other assorted Razorback injuries included All-SWC defensive tackle Rick Kersey, bruised back and flanker John Rees, strained back.

Texas A&M coach Gene Stallings again was displeased with the Aggies' workouts but was happy to see senior All-SWC defensive back Dave Elmendorf back in camp.

Elmendorf reported for the first time Tuesday after playing in the National Baseball Congress tournament in Wichita, Kan.

The TCU Horned Frogs also went a round with the injury bug and lost two players. Starting tight end John Bellue was lost for at least two months with a knee injury. Second string center Rusty Blair likely is out for the season with a foot injury.

Says Clay Will Soon Be in Ring

By WILLIAM CHAZE

Associated Press Writer
ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — A state senator seeking a title fight between Cassius Clay and Joe Frazier says Clay will soon enter the ring for the first time in three years for an exhibition bout with an unnamed ranking heavyweight.

And, said Sen. Leroy Johnson, head of House of Sports Inc., the certainty of the exhibition bout makes him "very confident" Clay and heavyweight champion Frazier will meet, and Frazier has said such a title fight could take place if "we see that he (Clay) gets into the ring."

Clay was recently licensed to box by the Atlanta Athletic Commission after three years of making futile efforts to obtain a license in a number of other states.

The former champion was denied a license after he refused induction into the Army on grounds that his Muslim religion forbade the carrying of arms. He lost the title when he was unable to defend it.

Johnson's announcement two weeks ago that Clay had obtained an Atlanta license caught the boxing world by surprise. Unlike the other states to which Clay had applied for a boxing license, Georgia has no state athletic commission.

Durham, however, said he was skeptical such a fight could take place because he refused to believe that Clay was licensed.

Johnson, meanwhile, has been seeking to arrange an exhibition bout that would prove, once and for all, that Clay is indeed back in the fight business. He told a reporter Tuesday that he would hold a news conference either today or Thursday to talk about his plans for Clay.

He refused to say when the exhibition bout will be held or which heavyweight Clay will face. He did rule out top-rated Oscar Bonavena of Argentina, saying: "We haven't even thought about him."

Bridge is supposed to be a young man's game, but Waldemar von Zedtwitz, who is 74 years young, just won the World's mixed-pair championship with Barbara Brier of Miami, Fla. Waldy won the Vanderbilt Cup in 1930 and has won just about every American bridge title in sight, but this is his first World's championship. Barbara, one of the best women bridge players, is also a very successful teacher.

The bidding of today's hand shows that Waldy, sitting North, can handle modern science with the best of the modern bidders.

His three-heart call was one of those all-purpose cue bids. If Barbara wanted to try three no-trump, he had shown her a heart control. If she wanted to move toward slam, he was ready. He couldn't be sure about her four-club bid. Maybe she just wanted to get to game, so he merely bid five clubs.

Then, when she bid five hearts, he revalued his hand. Obviously, she was showing the king of hearts and trying for a grand slam. Could she be doing this without both the ace and queen of trumps? No, unless she had a six-card suit. Could she have a couple of small spades? No chance. He had never shown his spade ace. Was his queen of hearts likely to be valuable? Indeed it was. Waldy closed the bidding at seven clubs.

The play was elementary for someone of Barbara's caliber. She won the spade lead and promptly called for dummy's king of clubs. There would be no problem about the grand slam as long as all four trumps didn't show up in one hand. If West held them, the grand slam would not be made. Since East held them, Barbara was able to pick up the jack-10 by leading through them twice. She also had to ruff a diamond, but that was child's play once she had made the correct play in trumps.

Planes Keep Supplies From Enemy

By FRED HOFFMAN
AP Military Writer
SAIGON (AP) — U.S. military sources say enemy forces in Cambodia are getting only a dribble of supplies from North Vietnam because of intense American air attacks on river infiltration routes.

These sources believe North Vietnamese troops in Cambodia have had to draw on arms and supply caches that escaped discovery when U.S. and South Vietnamese units swept enemy base sanctuaries near the South Vietnamese border in May and June.

Nixon administration officials have estimated the allied drive into the Cambodian border base areas uncovered about 60 percent of the materiel stockpiled there.

There also is evidence that the enemy may be bringing some supplies back into Cambodia from South Vietnam, where military action has been at low ebb, American sources say. U.S. reconnaissance planes recently spotted more than 120 loaded bicycles moving west from the border region north of Saigon.

With rain making many dirt roads through southern Laos unusable, American sources said, the North Vietnamese have been relying heavily on streams to float supplies to Cambodia and the lower regions of South Vietnam.

Reconnaissance photographs show long strings of bags and barrels guided by what appear to be bamboo rafts placed in the water to prevent the supplies from drifting aground.

In one recent raid, U.S. Air Force F4 Phantom jets reportedly destroyed an estimated 200 steel drums floating near Tchepone, a longtime enemy supply base in the Laotian panhandle.

American warplanes have seeded the streams with mines.

Withdrawal in 5 Years Seen by Agnew

By CARL P. LEUBSDORF
Associated Press Writer
SUN-MOON LAKE, Formosa (AP) — Vice President Spiro T. Agnew declared today that all U.S. forces would be withdrawn from South Korea when the modernization of that nation's armed forces is completed, possibly within five years.

Continuing his four-nation Asian tour, Agnew flew from South Korea to the Nationalist Chinese island of Formosa after two days of extended conferences with Korean President Chung Hee Park.

During the flight to Formosa, Agnew told newsmen it was "very doubtful" that the United States would leave even a token force in Korea after the modernization of South Korea's 600,000-man army, navy and air force.

The United States now has 62,000 troops in South Korea and plans to withdraw 20,000 by next June 30. South Korean officials claim they need $3 billion in American aid in the next five years—more than four times the present program—to improve their forces to the point where they can fight off any North Korean attack without U.S. help.

Agnew said he "pointed out very frankly to President Park that at such time as the modernization program is complete—the long range program, it might take five years or more, we would hope that they would be in a state of economic and military balance that would no longer necessitate any American forces in Korea."

Asked if this meant all U.S. forces would be withdrawn from Korea within five years, Agnew replied: "I don't know whether five years will complete the program."

his opponents. Riley led the ticket for lieutenant governor; Thornton carried for attorney general and Hendrix took a big lead over Murphy.

Mack McLarty easily defeated his opponent, Arthur Strech, for state representative, 4,865 to 1,480.

Incumbent County Judge Finis Odom defeated Frank Walters 3,280 to 2,992.

The race for sheriff was by far the closest and incumbent Jimmie Griffin was barely forced into a runoff according to the unofficial tally. Griffin needed only 11 votes to have a majority. Unless the official count shows a change he will be forced into a runoff against Henry Sinyard, a newcomer to politics.

The unofficial vote gave Griffin 3,212; Henry Sinyard 1,850 and Larry Arnette 1,378.

Governor Rockefeller easily took the county, the vote being 412 to 10 for his other two opponents combined.

For Lieutenant Governor Cockrill polled 326 in the county and Williams 63 and for Secretary of State the local voters gave Sheets 240 to 142 for Thompson.

At Blains in the race for recorder Robert M. Taylor polled 67 votes to beat out Clio McCaskill who got 45.

For Committeeman at McNab Enos McDowell got 82 votes to 29 for B. C. Green.

Negro Boycott in Texarkana

TEXARKANA, Ark. (AP) — A Negro boycott of Texarkana schools is to begin today, Mrs. Hamilton Green, spokesman for the Miller County Independent Voters, said Tuesday.

Residents of the predominantly Negro area near Carver School proposed the boycott in July when the Department of Health, Education and Welfare approved a school board plan to close the school.

The main objection by residents of the area is that the plan would cause black students to be sent to white schools while whites were not being sent to any black schools.

Cockrill in, Riley Faces a Runoff

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — State Rep. Sterling R. Cockrill Jr. of Little Rock, a former Democrat, won Republican nomination for lieutenant governor Tuesday while Dr. Bob Riley and state Rep. James H. Harrell faced a runoff for the Democratic nomination.

Cockrill, who bolted the Democratic party earlier this year to join the GOP, handily defeated Gerald Williams, a North Little Rock radio announcer.

With 525 of 578 Republican precincts reported, Cockrill had 42,149 votes and Williams 7,230.

In the Democratic race, with 2,626 of 2,757 precincts tabulated, Riley had 122,226 votes and Harrell had 96,969. Others were Kenneth C. Coffelt of Jacksonville 73,031, Bill L. Nelson of Rogers 53,245, Odie O. Wilson of North Little Rock 18,097 and Paul Mah of Dumas 14,297.

The Riley-Harrell runoff will be Sept. 8.

Hubert L. Blanton of Hughes, the American party candidate, waits to take on the GOP and Democratic nominees in the November general election.

Riley, 45, is professor of political science at Ouachita Baptist University. A former member of the Arkansas House, he served as the House's parliamentarian in the last legislative session.

Harrell, 33, an automobile dealer, real estate broker and oil distributor, has served in the House since 1967.

Cockrill, 45, was considered to be Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller's running mate. He is an insurance man who has served in the legislature since 1957, rising to speaker of the House and then to majority leader.

Britt did not seek a third two-year term. He is the manager of Rockefeller's re-election campaign.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — Former Gov. Orval E. Faubus topped a field of eight in the Arkansas Democratic gubernatorial primary Tuesday but was forced into a Sept. 8 runoff to choose the party nominee to oppose Republican Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller, who won easy nomination for a third term.

Faubus failed to obtain a majority vote that would have given him the nomination on the first round and set up a rematch in the November general election of the 1964 Faubus-Rockefeller race in which the former governor won a sixth two-year term.

State Atty. Gen. Joe Purcell and Dale Bumpers, a lawyer making his first major political race, were locked in a close contest for the runoff position opposite Faubus. Bumpers appeared to be the victor.

Faubus, 60, who served as chief executive from 1955 until his retirement in January 1967, predicted that he would have no trouble in the runoff.

With 2,697 of the 2,792 Democratic precincts tabulated, Faubus commanded 149,646 votes. Bumpers had 81,755 and Purcell 77,911.

Rockefeller easily disposed of three little-known opponents, including the first Negro to run for governor in Arkansas since 1920, the Rev. R. J. Hampton, a minister of the African Methodist Episcopal Church.

With 520 of 578 Republican precincts reported, Rockefeller had 50,701 votes, Hampton 770, former radio evangelist James K. "Uncle Mac" MacKrell 663 and Lester Gibbs, a former state delinquent tax collector, 465.

Other Democratic totals were Arkansas House Speaker Hayes McClerkin 43,015, former state Rep. Bill G. Wells of Hermitage 31,263, lawyer Robert C. Compton of El Dorado 19,265, businessman-farmer James M. Malone Jr. of Lonoke 6,428 and businessman W. S. Cheek of West Memphis 2,756.

Rockefeller, 58, said he was looking forward to the November general election and a possible match with Faubus again.

"He whipped me once and I relish the fact that I think I can whip him," Rockefeller said.

Walter Carruth of Lexa, an East Arkansas farmer, also will be in the general election race

Thornton Is Winner Over Griffin

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Ray H. Thornton Jr. of Sheridan won Democratic nomination as attorney general Tuesday, defeating state Sen. Richard Earl Griffin of Crossett in a hotly contested race.

With 2,767 of 2,792 precincts reported, Thornton had amassed 217,255 votes to 178,833 for Griffin.

Thornton, 42, will oppose American party candidate John Norman Warnock of Camden in the November general election. Incumbent Atty. Gen. Joe Purcell sought the Democratic nomination for attorney general. The Republicans offered no candidate.

After it became apparent that he had lost, Griffin went to Thornton's campaign headquarters and spoke to Thornton's supporters.

Griffin seized on Thornton's connections with the Arkansas Louisiana Gas Co. as a major issue in the campaign. Thornton was an attorney for the utility, a relationship he said he severed when he entered the attorney general's race, and is a nephew of W. R. "Witt" Stephens, president and board chairman of Arkla.

Griffin, 31, serving his first term in the Senate, claimed that Thornton was "capitulated" to serving the needs of Arkla. He said Thornton's service as attorney general would be a conflict of interest.

The senator tried to show that Arkla, through its business dealings, had sought to "dictate, dominate and control" state government.

Thornton claimed that Griffin would be a part-time attorney general, since the senator had said that he would maintain private law practice because he could not live on the $6,000-a-year state salary.

Thornton also said Griffin had violated the law profession's canon of ethics by representing criminal defendants in Ashley County while his law partner was deputy prosecutor.

Thornton said his service as a delegate to the state Constitutional Convention would be valuable in the attorney general's office if the voters adopted the proposed new document in the general election.

Hassle Over Baltimore Stadium

BALTIMORE (AP) — The Baltimore Circuit Court has been asked to grant the Baltimore Colts use of Memorial Stadium for a Sept. 28 National Football League game against the Kansas City Chiefs.

The Colts in a suit filed Tuesday afternoon, contended that their contract with the city Park Board entitles them to use the stadium.

The suit alleged that the contract guarantees them availability of the facility any day or night after the last Sunday in September, this year falling the day before the Colts want to use the stadium.

The court action named as defendants the Baltimore Orioles and their president, Jerold C. Hoffberger; Baltimore Mayor Thomas D'Alesandro III, and Park Board president Joseph Rash.

No date was set for a hearing. Under the Orioles' stadium contract with the city, the Park Board is supposed to use its "best effort" not to schedule a football or soccer game closer than 36 hours before a baseball game.

The baseball schedule released last December kept Sunday, Sept. 27, free for the Colts' home opener, but two months ago the NFL released a schedule calling for the Colts to host the Chiefs on Monday night, Sept. 28.

The game is scheduled to be carried by the American Broadcasting Co. as part of its 13-game prime-time Monday night TV package.

The Orioles are scheduled to play a two-night doubleheader against the Washington Senators a day later and say they need the field ready by 3 p.m., or about 15 hours after the football game would end.

Future Car Deals Out for Senators

By WALTER R. MEARS
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Ethics Committee has forbidden future cut-rate automobile leasing deals that put some senators behind the wheels of Lincoln Continentals for $750 a year.

In issuing the ruling as an advisory recommendation, the panel did not say which senators had accepted the low-cost leases from automobile manufacturers seeking to promote their cars by having celebrities drive them.

It said only that "certain senators and a Senate officer personally have leased an automobile from an automobile manufacturing company under special and favorable terms."

Sen. John C. Stennis, D-Miss., chairman of the Ethics Committee, reported its findings to the Senate Monday, declaring the practice should end with the current set of leases, if not before.

At least a dozen senators reportedly had leased automobiles in what Stennis called "a promotional program of many years' standing."

Stennis said the committee found no evidence of wrongdoing or improper influence in connection with the leases.

Stennis said the committee found no evidence of wrongdoing or improper influence in connection with the leases.

Stennis said the committee found no evidence of wrongdoing or improper influence in connection with the leases.

all had acknowledged providing cut-rate cars to government officials and some members of the House and Senate as a promotional device.

The Continental leases, at $750 a year, were less than one-third the normal price for rental of the luxury cars.

After the ethics panel issued its report, a Ford official said: "Ford Motor Co. will abide by the recommendation of the Senate committee on standards of conduct and will, of course, cooperate fully with any senator wishing to terminate his lease immediately."

Asked if this meant the special deal would no longer be available to senators, Rodney W. Markley Jr., Ford's Washington vice president, replied: "I believe so."

General Motors has been leasing 33 Cadillacs to various government officials at the cut rate of $1,000 a year.

The Senate committee concluded the special rates were not available to ordinary citizens. "But for the fact that they were senators and a Senate officer, they probably would not have been offered such terms," the panel reported.

Bobcats Work Hard for First Game

Showing a will to win, the Hope Bobcats are practicing hard for their home opener in hopes of beating Ashdown.

Yesterday's practice included more polishing up on the prototype offense with the quarterbacks throwing to all receivers.

On defense the Bobcats are solid with some hard-hitting juniors and seniors. The front line is tough and big with Lynn Norton, Winston Franks and Bubba Powers.

Steve Harris, a returning letterman, heads up the linebacking crew with Mike Downs his counterpart.

In the secondary will be Sidney Waller, a senior, with Stan James close behind.

The offense is comparatively small with linemen Randy Wright, Calvin Willis, Rodney Burke, Tim White and Richard Butler.

The backfield is headed by Ronnie Massanelli with Steve

We took most of the lead out, to help clean up the air.

We left half a cc of lead in, because engine tests show some lead is needed to prevent possible valve damage.

We doubled the amount of engine-cleaning detergent, to cut exhaust emissions even more.

We kept octane high, so 9 out of 10 drivers can use it without worrying about engine knock.

Wants Suburb Housing Open to All Races

WASHINGTON (AP) — The plight of central-city workers will worsen unless suburban housing is opened to people of all races and income levels, a Senate committee has been told.

Efforts to bring together the inner-city poor and jobs in the suburbs have failed, specialists testified, because as jobs are drained from cities, most are taken by suburban dwellers.

The Equal Educational Opportunity Committee received a study Tuesday from Ernest Erber, research director for the National Committee Against Discrimination in Housing. The study, still under way, is probing housing and job patterns in the New York City area.

"Preliminary findings indicate that present transportation systems and facilities preclude reverse commuting as a practical arrangement for all but a few central city residents," Erber said.

Public transportation is inadequate even for what it was designed to do—move suburbanites to white-collar jobs in the center of cities—and is nearly useless when a reverse city-to-suburb trip is attempted, he said.

Car pools usually don't work, judging by experiments at Mahwah and Long Island plants. Many workers are unable to buy cars, and there was a daily instability due to illness, layoffs or firings of drivers.

Two experimental bus services carrying workers from ghetto areas to Bergen and Nassau Counties' job centers were failures and were terminated, Erber said.

He said there were four main reasons: Fewer jobs than originally surveyed were available; wages weren't much higher than low-paid work at home; bus fare was 25 to 60 cents one way; and the bus ride took up to 90 minutes.

Massive governmental and private efforts must be forthcoming, Erber said, if minorities are to be moved from slums in sufficient numbers to halt expansion of deteriorated neighborhoods in all big cities.

Headquarters Hopping Popular in L. Rock on Election Night

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — When the hard, unhappy truth became apparent to James M. Malone Jr. of Lonoke, he said of his chance for Democratic gubernatorial nomination: "It's gone. It's shot."

When Hayes C. McClerkin of Texarkana realized he had met the same fate, he also spoke bluntly: "We bombed out on first night."

Malone, 43, spoke his concession of defeat in an interview with a reporter. McClerkin, 38, speaker of the Arkansas House of Representatives, stood on a desk and announced his failure to a crowd of supporters at his Little Rock headquarters.

Those were among the sights and sounds witnessed by some who happened to be in the right place at the right time as hundreds went "headquarters hopping" while the votes were being counted election night.

By 2 a.m. today, the majority of the crowds had gone.

At one time, after Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller had been declared winner of the Republican nomination, traffic blocked the streets at and around his Marion Hotel headquarters.

At all the headquarters, spectators saw red, white and blue bunting, campaign stickers, banners and at least one television set surrounded by those watching election telecasts.

Dale Bumpers of Charleston was in a crowd which applauded at his headquarters for each return that pushed him a little more ahead of Atty. Gen. Joe Purcell.

His lead remained thin.

Nixon Marks Suffrage Anniversary

SAN CLEMENTE, Calif. (AP) — President Nixon marked the 50th anniversary of women's suffrage today with a proclamation in which he predicted "women surely have still a wider role to play in the political, economic and social life of the country."

"In respect for all American women," the President suggested, "let all of us work to bring this about."

It was Nixon's first public pronouncement on the role or rights of women since he took office, his press office said.

The five-paragraph proclamation was issued on the eve of the suffrage anniversary and the nationwide "Women's Strike for Equality" today.

It noted that on Aug. 26, 1920, Secretary of State Bainbridge Colby certified the 19th amendment to the Constitution giving women the right to vote.

Nixon said it is hard now to imagine a time when women didn't have the vote and he cited the "great debt" owed to those who dedicated their lives to this cause.

The President made no mention of current efforts by women to obtain equal rights or the equal rights amendment to the Constitution which passed the House Aug. 10 and is pending in the Senate.

Presidential aides have pointed out that Nixon supports equal rights for women and that the concept was part of his party's campaign platform. But Nixon has refrained from making any personal statement on this proposed amendment or on the report of some of his presidential task forces that recommended

Chas. Manson Perturbed at His Attorney

By LINDA DEUTSCH
Associated Press Writer
LOS ANGELES (AP) —

Charles M. Manson shook his head in displeasure as his attorney—short, stocky Irving Kanarek—cross-examined the county coroner about the Sharon Tate murders.

"Doctor, do you have any opinion on whether Abigail Folger received any of her injuries in the place where she came to rest on the lawn of ..."

"Objection, your honor!" cried Paul Fitzgerald, attorney for defendant Patricia Krenwinkel. When Kanarek protested that he hadn't finished, Fitzgerald added: "The question is objectionable as far as it went."

"But your honor," said Kanarek, "maybe I could have saved it."

At that point Tuesday, Manson, diminutive and pale in blue jail denim, renewed his efforts to fire Kanarek and represent himself. The judge denied Manson's motion.

"This man is not doing what I want," he said of the attorney, whose conduct also has been criticized by other defense lawyers.

Manson was perturbed Tuesday, reliable sources said, because Kanarek's questioning hurt the defense of his three women codefendants. The state's key witness, Linda Kasabian, has testified that she saw Miss Krenwinkel chasing Miss Folger across the lawn while holding a raised knife. The dark-haired coffee heiress was stabbed 28 times, the coroner has said.

Kanarek's question, the source said, reinforced the prosecution theory of a chase across the lawn.

The state says that Manson, 35, leader of a hippie-style "family," sent his followers to kill Miss Tate and six others on two nights last August. On trial with Manson, for murder-conspiracy, are Miss Krenwinkel, 22, Susan Atkins, 21, and Leslie Van Houten, 20.

Miss Van Houten's attorney, Ronald Hughes, joined in Manson's request to represent himself.

The judge excused the jury and allowed Manson to argue his motion.

"I have no rapport with this attorney," said Manson. "I've asked Mr. Kanarek to do certain things but it has no effect. He's a good man, a sincere and honest and truthful human being and I like him very much, but as an attorney he doesn't represent me."

Manson said if he couldn't represent himself, he wanted all four attorneys "hooked up" under one leader, Fitzgerald. The judge repeated his belief that

Dist. to Submit New Plans

WATSON CHAPEL, Ark. (AP) — The Watson Chapel School District was to submit two new desegregation plans to U.S. District Judge Oren Harris today.

John Norman Warnock, attorney for the district, said Tuesday that a primary proposal would be a plan for a unitary high school and junior high plus a $5 million "super high school" complex to be constructed with federal funds.

The alternate plan was still being formulated, Warnock said Tuesday.

Harris had given the district 15 days to develop a new plan after the freedom-of-choice plan was rejected Aug. 11.

The district was expected to open its schools today with the freedom-of-choice plan.

Manson is incompetent to represent himself and said no attorney can be made subject to orders from another. He denied the motion.

After Manson's complaint, Kanarek ceased questioning and Coroner Thomas I. Noguchi was excused subject to possible recall.

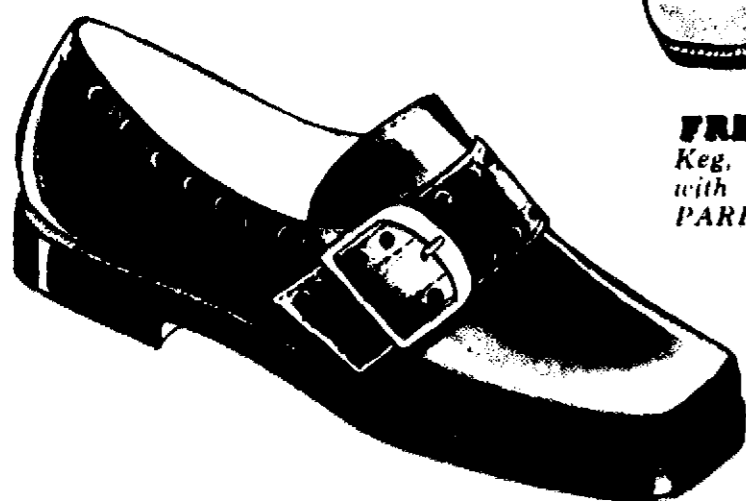

Earlier, he had testified that blonde, pregnant Miss Tate was hanged, probably after she had been stabbed 16 times. The cause of death, he said, was stab wounds and there were no medical signs of strangulation.
